

SHAMANIC ENERGY SCHOOL

(working with the Light Body) The objective of this school is to prepare us to hold the vibration for higher healing and energy work in a sacred place sustaining our circle and our AYU community. We will honor the sacred myths of the Earth, emphasizing deep shamanic rituals that reflect the universal stories of our planet. We will work with our internal guides for this magical work while learning a new appreciation of the changes and cycles of the cosmos and how the moon and the seasons flow rhythmically in our bodies and souls.

Our community is important to us and we are committed to continuing in our work together. These workshop weekends build on one another, but are designed to be freestanding events also. You do not need to sign up for all four weekends but it is recommended.

1st WEEKEND- DOORWAYS OF INITIATION Nov. 2-3-4, 2012 _the focus of this workshop is to further our understanding of “healing” using advanced divination. We will use our knowledge of the light body to focus on essential parts of Shamanic practices. *(Bring a healing crystal or stone to this workshop to begin building your healing mesa).

2nd WEEKEND-MEDICINE WOMAN as a CHANNEL Jan.25-26-27, 2012

this is a profound shift in being, to a new mode of operating in the world, where you become a clearing -- an opening for the higher energies of the universe to move gracefully through you -- naturally drawing to you your highest good. As you open these new channels of flow, you become magnetic to all that is on your highest path, to all that helps you fulfill your purpose in being here as a medicine woman.*(Bring a second stone for your healing mesa).

3rd WEEKEND- SACRED ALLIES March 8-9-10, 2013 working with our guides, meditation and journeys.*(Bring a third stone for your healing mesa)
